

Professional Animal Sitting Services, Inc.

What We Expect From Our Clients

- Have enough pet food, medications, cat litter, treats, or other supplies necessary for the length of your service.
 - We will shop for these items if needed but we will charge a fee.
- Arrange for treatment with your veterinarian if your pet becomes ill while you are away.
- Tell the people you have listed on your emergency contact sheet that we are caring for you home and pet while you are away. Make sure that the person(s) listed on your emergency contact list will be available during your absence.
- Tell us if your pet is ill or requires medication.
- Tell us if your pet has ever bitten anyone.
 - What were the circumstances that caused your pet to bite.
- Provide leashes, pet carriers, and collars for your pets.
- Provide basic cleaning supplies for cleaning food bowls, water bowls, cages, and litter boxes.
- Tell us if you have specific watering instructions, are expecting a delivery, have a pool service, have a maid service, have a gardener, or anyone that may be at your home during our service.
 - If we don't know about them we will assume they do not have permission to be on your property.
- To pay for services rendered promptly.
- To have a wonderful vacation. You have done everything necessary to make your pets happy and comfortable while you are away.
